LOCAL NEWS.

For this section fair weather, brisk to high northwesterly winds, diminishing in force, colder Friday morning, followed by slowly rising tem-

No man in the community had, or more justly deserved the esteem of his fellows than Mr. McKnight, whose probity was proverbial and whose genial disposition, kindness of heart and true Christian character made his life an example worthy of emulation. He live I to an age but seldom alloted to man in these latter days, but retained in a remarkable degree his faculties and to within a few weeks had failed but little.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge James Chichester presiding —Com. vs. W. C. Holmes, charged with unlawfuny cutting Henry Beach; verdict; guilty of assault, and fined $25 and costs; same paid and prisoner discharged.

Letters of administration were granted A. G. Hayes, upon the estate of Wm. N. Reed, late of Alexandria county, deceased, and Mrs. F. A. Reed was appointed guardain to deceased's minor children.

Com. vs. Paschal Carter, Willie Carter and Addie Williams, indicted for an assault en John S. Smith; case heard and sub-

THE RETROCESSION MATTER.—A petition is in circulation asking Congress to refer the acts and proceedings of the United States and Virginia relative to the retrocession of Alexandria county to the State of Virginia in 1847, to the judiciary committee, to examic and report upon the validity of these acts, and the proper method of the control of amine and report upon the validity of these acts, and the proper measures to be adopted in reference to them. The papers are very generally signed in the county and have received some signatures in the city. This matter has from time to time been agitated only to be dropped after those engaged in the retrocession effort had reaped their "trouble for their pains."

OPERA House.-To night the talented English actress, Claire Scott, will appear as Mary Stuart, Queen of Scots. The Boston Record says: The play is a powerful one and deeply interesting in its strong and tell-ing situations. Miss Scott, who is a worthy and painstaking actress, made the most of her many opportunities, and won the favor of the large audience in the character of Mary Stuart. She was ably supported by a company of even excellence. Mr. S. K. Co-burn maintained the enviable reputation which be has already carned, and the balance of the company were equal to the roles assigned them."

PROPERTY SALE.—The farm and improvements of Dr. D. N. Rust, situated near the Leesburg pike, about two miles from this city, bas been sold through the agency of Messrs. Green & Wiss to Mr. F. L. Curtier, an Englishman, for $4 300 cash. The farm contains thirteen acres, on which is a con-fortable dwelling, fine barn and other outbuildings. It has on it a very large and fine pear crebsrd. Mr. Curtter and Mr. Randolph Cuyler, who is a sociated with him, it is said, will start an extensive apisty and will have the best varie y of bees to be

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATIONS -The Christmas celebration of the Suaday School attached to the Lee street chapel of the Second Presbyterian Church took place Tues-day afternoon, those of the schools of the First and Second Presbyterian and the Methodist Epicopal Church South last night, and that of the school attached to Meade Chapel (colored) yesterday afternoon. Large crowds assembled in each church, the exercises, which were impressive and sallable to the occasion, were joined in heartily by both young and old.

THE R & D. OFFICES - The Richmond Dispatch of to day quotes the article which appeared in the GAZETTE yesterday, stating that the R & D R. R. offices would not be removed from Washington to Richmond, removed from Washington to Edemond, and says:

"Major Dooley some time ago told a Dispatch representative that the Beard of Directors had entered an order directing that the offices be removed to Richmond. President Sully was present at the time. If the board has revoked its action the public is not informed; but there are no signs indicating a return of the offices to Richmond."

FINED - W. C. Holmes, who was tried in the county court yesterday for an assault on J. H Beach, near Four Mile Run, several months ago, was to day fined $25 and discharged. The case was given to the jury yesterday evening about 4 o'clock, and this morning they have been agont to be a superior than the superior they have been agont to be a superior than the superior th yesterday evening about 4 o'clock, and this morning they brought in their verdict. It will be remembered that Beach was badly cut about the face and head. The commonwealth was represented by Messrs. J. E. Clemens and C. E. Stuart, and the defendant by Mr. J. M. Johnson.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY LANDS.—The sales and transfers of lands in Alexandria county during this fall have been unparalleled in the previous history of the county. The last monthly list of deeds made out by Clerk monthly list of deeds made out by Clerk Young to be affixed to the courthouse door was over six feet in length, and the December land business shows yet an increase. Many of the purchasers of land are District people, some buying for homes and others as SECRET ORGANIZATIONS.—A meeting was held in this city last night to organize a uniform Rank of K. ights of Pythias. Mr. Geo. Deeton was chosen chairman, H. Harper, secretary and V. C. Moore treasurer. The secretary and V. C. hoper was Rathbone. A name of the Rank chosen was Rathbone. A committee was appointed to devise ways and means for perfecting the organization.

It is understood that a movement is on foot to organize an order of E ks in this

A NEW COMPANY.-The American Re-A New Company.—The American Reduction Company has recently been formed in New York with Gen. Mahone president, his son. Butler Mahone, secretary, and Mr. D. A. Windsor, of this city, one of the directors. The object of the company is to reduce, by a new process, the abandanad condensed and conde doned gold and silver ores in several mines night and by this morning the temperature was sufficiently low to satisfy any reasonable admirer of winter weather. All night a suff or thwest wind prevailed which continued during the day. Ice formed in considerable quantities on the river and most of the ponds about the city ways in your over the ponds about the city were frozen over.

SUIT.-- A suit for $20,000 damages has been filed in Washington by Wm. Fletcher against John J. Shipman. The plaintiff charges that on the 8th of June, 1887, Shipman made use of the following language, concerning him: "There goes the thievish that it is a disgrace to go to law with such a man to get your rights." The plaintiff also accuses him of saving: "Ain't it a pity I have to go to law and spend my honest money to get my just dues from that murderer and thief that has just passed by."
